

Early Prayer February 9, 2010 The Fire Gate is Open

John sings: Can you hear the sound of melodies rising up to You?

Chuck: Pray in the Spirit and pray for every nation, every tribe and tongue. There will be a sound and song of His covenant that will arise from that blood people.

John sings: Egypt, Saudi Arabia, U.K., France, Brazil, Argentina, Malaysia, China, Mongolia, Kazakhstan. Wherever you are around the world, let your praises rise up. You are representing the ethnos of the earth rising before the Lord.

Chuck: The sound of the Spirit of God flowing through the spirit of man bringing the river of God from heaven back up to heaven and unlocking the seals, causing the heavens to be cleared up! We worship You. On earth there is a covenant for every blood group.

John: And they stood before Him from every tribe and every nation and the sound of their praise was deafening, like the sound of many waters, like Niagara Falls!

Chuck: Our blood mingling with Your blood becoming one! I looked and there was a lamb as if it had been slain, but now it has released a triumphant people in the earth. Father, we come today to triumph in this season. Let the seas, the rivers and the earth rise up and bless You. Shake the foundations of the earth this month and realign so the blessings of God can rise up. Where the land is not blessing You, let a sound of blessing rise up.

Cathy sings: We lift our hands and bless You. With all that is in us we bless You. From the mountains, valleys, in our houses and as we drive the streets in our cars, we bless You, Lord!

Chuck: Our response to You, Lord, during this time, causes the lamb to go and unseal what has been sealed. Thank You for the outpouring of revelation this month that will press us past Leviathan's mouth, will press us past the waters that would overtake us, will press us through the fires that will not burn us. Now there is a seal that will be unlocked and revelation is coming so we gain momentum this hour.

John sings: The sound of Your love is what you're hearing.

Chuck: Voices of thunder will come this month saying, "Come and see! You have looked one way but because you are willing to taste, now you will see. Because you are willing to rearrange your taste buds, your eyes will see what you have been missing. Come and see!"

John sings: Come and see! Taste and see! I call to all disheartened ones, rise up again, taste and see!

Shara: The Lord said to me, "Open the fire gate." I asked, "What is the fire gate?" He said, "My eyes are the fire gate. When I open My fire gate, I will open your fire gate and we will see eye to eye."

Chuck: Lord, thank You that You're unsealing a gate that has been sealed up. Where we have been blind in one area, You are opening a gate and we can see our way in. You are opening a fire gate of passion in Your people and the sounds that were locked within us will now rise up and clear the heavens so the revelation can come down. Father, unlock the seals of heaven that will cause us to see the way and not look back.

Aci: Speaks in tongues.

Chuck: For I say to you, "Your soul has been dry and your soul has cried but today there is a sound of rushing waters in your soul that is causing your soul not only to be healed, but to see. In your soul seeing, your identity will be displayed. Allow the rivers flowing from My throne to flow in your soul so that your soul comes alive in Me with new energy to press forward. Your soul will now see. You have not seen your identity reflect back to you. I am causing a river to cause a reflection to come through you that you have not seen. The identities of My people in the earth are now changing and they will have a different identity as they cross into their future. Remove that which is not reflecting Me."

John sings: There is a mighty river flowing in this place.

Chuck: The Lord says, "There is a smell of sacrifice rising from My people because the fire has been kindled. You have smelled the burning but have not seen the fire. Smell the burning and watch, for the fire will come alive. You have been burning and have the smell of burning in you, but now the fire will blaze in you."

Shara: When they consecrated themselves for seven days, the priests were commanded to keep the fire burning. On the eighth day they offered up their sacrifices and fire came out from the Lord. It did not come from what they had been doing. It was a different fire and it came out from the Lord. We set ourselves apart to You, Lord. We want nothing less than Your fire. Let it come out of us. Let it burn a path in front of us so that our eyes see clearly and we can take everything You have said to take.

Chuck: Ask the Lord to open that fire gate and cause the smell of burning that has been purifying you in the last several months to turn to a new fire. “There must be a release of new fire through My people” says the Lord.

John: When the sacrifices were burned, the Lord said, “The fat is mine.” The fat is in the fire and we are moving on to a new place.

Chuck: Decree, “The fat is going in the fire!” That is a word from God. I hear the Lord saying, “You have been trying to lose weight on your own, in the flesh. You have been trying to get rid of weight, not just physically but weight spiritually and the fat is going in the fire today.”

John sings: There is a river of fire flowing in this place.

Anne: Since Head of the Year, the Lord has put a new sound in me. It is not a sound of tongues that I have ever had before. It would come up with the music and the Lord would expand it. This morning the Lord says that He is creating a new sound. Chuck is calling for a new sound from us. I am going to release this sound, and I am not a singer. Sings in tongues.

Chuck: This is saying, “You will go beyond, for you had fire in one season but now you will go beyond. You will draw back the bow and shoot beyond where you have gone in the past. You will ford and eddy and you will go into that water and yet you will not back up when the water deepens around you. You will go beyond. The fire gate of heaven is opening, the fat is in the fire and you will move toward the river and go beyond the river and the depth you have been in the past season.”

John sings: I’m going beyond. I’ve been through the fire and I’ve been through the water and now I’m going beyond.

Chuck: “Words have been spoken that stopped you from digesting My word in the past and stopped you with fear from branching out into places that I am calling you to branch out into. Those words are now being pushed out by the river and the fire in you so that you will have a boldness to say, ‘This is who I am in this season.’”

John sings: Through the fire, through the water, I ‘m going beyond. Nothing is going to hold me back.

LeAnn: One of the things about fat is that all the toxins are stored there. It is so good of God to say for us just to throw all of the fat on the fire. I also thought about how Paul was bitten by the serpent and shook it off into the fire. The Lord is saying, “There is a lot of stuff in the fat of that past season that I am asking you to offer Me because there are serpents in it. I’m asking you to shake it off and let Me consume it on My fire, on My altar.”

Chuck: Hear this dream.

Raymond: In my dream, I went to a pile covered in dirt. I was moving the dirt and there were little larvae that were not dead yet. As I moved the dirt, I saw the tail of a serpent leaving. The Lord says, “You have set your face to the fast and rekindled what you thought was dead. I am causing the serpent to leave what you thought was dead. Arise, and set your face to the fast that I might rekindle what the serpent tried to overtake in this past season.”

Chuck: I say, “Bring a sacrifice to Me. Go forward beyond where you have been before. Bring a sacrifice of you to Me and in your sacrificing to Me, what has been held up, breeding within you, now will begin to move out of you and deliverance will come. You will find yourself standing in the place that I have longed for you to stand. Deliverance now has been activated. The flood gate, the fire gate of deliverance, has now opened up and now deliverance is moving through My people. They are sacrificing to Me in a way I have not seen.”

John sings: Deliverance is coming! Rise up and take it now.

Chuck: I see a picture. It’s almost like you were lost in a snow storm and you’ve been pressing to find your way out. You are almost through the forest, but you feel like you need to lie down and sleep, that it is too hard to press on through. God says, “The fire is coming in you and melting away what is trying to cause you to slumber in this season.”

Cathy sings: Fire of the Lord is burning inside.

Chuck: “You have lost your ‘soul press’. I am rekindling your soul for there is an identity in you that is going to be fiery and will burn your way on through this season. Momentum is coming through the fire gate.”

Cathy sings: Momentum is coming through the fire gate.

Chuck: I say to you, “Catch the moment and you will create the event you’ve been watching for. You have said, ‘The event is escaping me.’ Catch the moment when I blow from heaven up through your soul and awaken the pasts that have fallen asleep.” Decree that there are areas in your soul that have not been awake.

LeAnn sings: He divides the flames of fire. Soul and spirit, He divides them!

Shara: When the snow melts, the rivers rise and everything that was dormant under the snow comes to life, so let the snow melt and let the rivers rise.

Instruments play

Chuck: He is pushing debris out. Debris is going!

LeAnn sings: He will rightly divide the Word in me. He will divide the word and set me free, because He divides the flames of fire. He will rightly divide the word in me.

Chuck: I say to you, “I will surprise you at how I begin to manifest Myself this month. I will cause something that seems like it was dead to begin to burn again. Turn and see. Turn away from your agreement with what you thought you were caught in. I am burning again and you will be “uncaught” and hear your next word from Me.”

John sings: I am burning up the chaff, the wood and the hay and the stubble. I am refining the gold in the fire. I am burning up the chaff.

Chuck: Now I heard the Lord say, “You thought you were going to worship in one way, but I had to open a gate in heaven to create a different way of worship in you. It will develop in you this month. As you take every assignment you’ve been given, it will begin to open up in a new way and you will not worship the way you thought you would be worshipping. If you had remained in that worship, you would have grown cold. Now, a new way of worship in heaven is opening up and My people will worship Me in new ways with new sacrifices this month.” Throw your hands out, for God’s going to fill them in a new way. “Listen carefully, for your rams are already positioned in the bush. You were tied up one way, but I am beginning to let you go free.” Father, we receive this today.

It is as if we were sacrificing one way and we are shifting our way of sacrifice today. The Lord says, “Listen carefully, for you will sacrifice to Me differently. This is where you are held captive. You will sacrifice to Me in a new way. (Shofar sounds) Hear your ram in the bush. It will be the sound of your sacrifice. When you sacrifice the fat of a ram and you begin to sacrifice what I bring to you, it will open up the sound and give you the trumpet that you need to speak to set your course in the heavens for the future. Get ready, for the fire gate is now opening.”

Instruments play.

LeAnn sings: The pupil of my eye is opening so I can receive more light. The way I was seeing is opening so I can see more light, rightly dividing to see what I did not see before. You are opening my eyes, you are opening a door.

Chuck: The Lord says, “Your eyesight is adjusting now. You’ve heard that this is the season to see and you have said, ‘Lord, I must have vision to deliver me.’ Now your eyesight is beginning to adjust. What you need to see is already caught and waiting on you. Your eyesight is adjusting. Things have narrowed your vision and you have not seen or ordered things to move on you the way I want to move. Because you are going to worship Me in a new way and bring the fat to the altar, when you lay there still, I will allow you to hear the new sound that is waiting for you. I will allow you to see and hear the supply that is caught up in the bush. Bring the fat to the altar and the supply in the bush will come alive and rattle. Bring the fat to the altar and that which is in the bush will come alive.”

Linus: “As you have set your face to seek Me, I am leading you into a new level of intimacy. Into Me you will see a new level of revelation. Into Me you will see new strategies. The intimacy I am leading you into will break open that which has been hidden from you in the dark places you have been going through. I am moving you forward to new levels of intimacy so that you may see into Me that which I have for you and that which I am moving you forward to possess. The territory is yours and the new land is yours, so move forward into new levels of intimacy.”

Chuck: Here is what I heard on the way up here this morning, “You’ve been trying to commune enough to gain the strength you need to press through. Now you will commune and in communing your eye that has been surrounded by sleep will now open. I am opening the fire gate to pour down communion on My people. There will be an ease in your communion. You have been striving in your communion, but now there will be an ease in your communion.”

Joe: When Shatise started to play, I got a picture of a kaleidoscope. When you look into a kaleidoscope, you see different pictures and shapes. When you turn it, it changes shape. You see different colors. The light changes and you see different things. As that kaleidoscope continued to change, we continued to change as we looked through the kaleidoscope into our next place and our future.

Chuck: I say to you, “Wait for the turning, for I am showing you facets that you have not understood and I am causing corners that you have had stored to come alive. Wait for the turning for I am bringing into focus a multi-colored vision that will cause you to not only see Me, but see the enemy and have the wisdom to speak so that enemy falls before you. There is a multi-faceted vision coming into focus for you” says the Lord.

Aci: When Shatise started playing, the Lord said, “I say to you, ‘You are aligning according to My apostolic guidance, so advance now!’”

Chuck: There will be a new order in place. God is saying it today. “I am ready to accelerate the alignment and there will be a new order in place. By April I must have My armies in place and shaking the earth in a new way.”

Catherine sings: It's Me that is looking through at you. I'm refining you and making you a mighty weapon for the battle ahead. Let Me finish what I'm doing inside of you. Let Me have My way. Wait until you hear My battle cry. I will release My power from on high. I'm going to move you in this weapon that I'm forming in the enemy's camp. In the night season I will place you in. He will not hear you or see you coming. When I release My battle cry and My power from on high, you will disperse over the earth and take back My kingdom. Turn over every strategy. Destroy every structure the enemy has placed in My earth. Wait, My children, wait, and you'll hear My battle cry.

Chuck: Just hear the Spirit of God. “This will be a month of burning the fat on the altar. As the fat goes into the fire, My voice will come to raise you higher above the waters that have tried to overtake you, above the fires of this earth that have tried to burn you. As you bring the fat and place it in the fire, I will cause My voice to raise you higher and you will see the order that I have.” Get ready to be reordered, to remove fat. I'm not talking about physical fat. The Lord says, “I will show you pockets of fat that you did not even know were there. A lot of it is the word of God that has been stored and not allowed to work within you.”

LeAnn: Last night the Lord said, “The spies brought out the grapes and they were for communion. The giants were the bread and the grapes were the wine. I was calling them to come into the land and commune with Me. I was facilitating the bread and the wine.” Lord, You are opening our eyes to see that giants are our bread. You have got plenty of wine in the grapes of the land for Your people. You are saying, “Come in! Come in! Sit at the table in the midst of your enemies. Let Me anoint your head and we will sup in the presence of your enemies.”

Chuck: Hear what God is saying this morning, “You've been postponing the communion I have ordained for you. It has caused you to grow fat. You have been trying to calculate My word. You have been postponing the communion I have for you and it has caused you to grow fat and enter into a deferred hope. You are creating the deferred hope, not Me. I have a new communion for you. Cross over into the land so the communion can come alive that I have planned.”

Anne: The Lord says, “You have been deferred by the things that have been around you. You have waited on people around you to begin to catch up, to begin to recognize and justify the stance that you are taking and to justify the place that you are moving. If you will stand up and move forward as you hear My voice, those that are languishing around you will begin to awaken and arise. Everything depends on you getting your place and moving in the position that you have been called to and hearing the voice of God as it comes to you. As I release it to you and as you move with Me in it the things around you will begin to sort themselves out. Those people around you will begin to arise and awaken. They cannot arise and awaken to your voice or the things that you say or the things that you do. They will only awaken to the sound of My voice and what I am doing in the kingdom. Begin to stand up and move as you hear My voice. Come into communion and move forward with the army, with Me. Their time will come. They will stand and arise as they watch the river of people and My army begin to form. Stand up in what you have been called to do and move forward. Have the courage to begin to move according to what you are hearing Me say.”

Chuck: Hear what is being said here. The Lord says, “You have not known how to commune with the elements that I've brought to you. I brought you the grapes and I brought you the giants in a new land. You backed up and tried to go back into an old communion because you did not know how to commune with the bread I was bringing you. Your giants around you are your communion. Use those giants to produce communion, not to back up into old patterns. The giant around you is what I want you to use to produce communion in a new way.”

John sings: Lay my life on the altar. Holy fire of the living God, burn through me.

Chuck: We are going to end this time with communing with the wine of triumph. God says, “I will cause you to triumph through a new type of communion.”

Diane: We declare in this new season that we are not a people who will suffer lack. We will allow You to remove the fat. Bathe Your sword in the fat of our praise for we will declare, “These are Your glorious days.”

Chuck: Father, we thank You that as we commune with the voice of triumph from heaven, the fat in us begins to burn. The Lord says, “Did I not say that I appeared as a lamb that had been slain but I came alive as a lion and created a triumphant people. Bring your fat to the altar this month.” That means that you will see fat that you can bring and lay on the altar and say, “I am sacrificing that this month before the Lord.” We are getting ready to enter the last month of the last season and fully enter the next. Get ready to sacrifice your fat and use your giants for the communion bread of the future. I say to you, “I have shifted the gate of heaven this morning and I am pouring out a fire that will burn away the fat that has developed over your last season. Let go of certain portions of the word that you have stored in you and in your mind and watch a demonstration of that word begin to come alive.” All of you at home, get your elements. I declare that your wine, even if it is water, will become a triumphant communion this month. As you dip your giants in My blood, you will eat and taste in a way you have never tasted before. Take communion as you watch this week. Your water will turn to wine. “The grapes of the land that you rejected will come alive again. Your giants will be your bread. Commune with Me in a new way. Bring your fat and lay it on the altar all month and watch Me set a fire within you.

John sings: Behold the lamb slain from the foundation of the earth. Behold the Lion of Judah. Behold the lamb and the lion.

Chuck: As John takes communion, I want Shatise and the team to build into that sound of triumph so we can go into the fields that we never possessed in the last season and triumph in this season. LeAnn will send us forth with the song that is building for us to re-stand in fields that we came out of in the last season and triumph in a new way. Hear it when it comes in low and brings us up with a triumphant, majestic sound that is causing you to be reclothed in a righteousness that cannot be shaken.

Instruments play.

LeAnn sings: You're burning up all our fear. You're burning up all our dismay. You're burning up all our doubt and bringing us into a new day. You're burning up all our fear. You're burning up all our dismay. You're burning up all our doubt and we're facing the giants to walk into a new day. Releasing garments of faith, releasing glorious garments of faith. The enemy trembles at the sight. Releasing garments of faith and we commune with You in a new way and the enemy trembles at the sight and at the sound. The sound of faith is coming over his borders into his land. It is quite a sight and it is quite a sound.

Chuck: The enemy knew that you would come alive this month; therefore he has injected you with slumber to stop you. “He is waiting and trembling because he knows that you now are not just burning, but you are becoming a fire that will burn him” saith the Lord. Tell someone, “You are too hot to touch”. The altar will burn because of you this month.
